

I strongly urge you to hold a public discussion regarding possible deregulations. Our civil right to the freedom of speech is one of the liberating foundations of our country. Thus, please, engage in dialogue with the constituents represented prior to making any precedencing decisions.